

MODULAR SYSTEM

Stop using clumsy and inconsistent ways to hold your parts. A lot of time is lost setting up your machines from one job to the next. Stop having to figure out how to hold your parts. Stop designing and making custom fixtures to hold your parts.

Most machine shops lose a lot of time in setting up their machines. WOW Workholding offers an efficient and predictable setup solution. Our customers are better prepared for their machining processes and as a result have less stress in their manufacturing.

Competition is tough. Do not fall behind. We have a solution.
